Please have application filled out for each child/cook participating in the Youth BBQ.

- Categories: Kids Q (Age 5 through 10 years old)
 Junior Q (Age 11 through 16 years old)

Completed Registration Form AND signed Release and Indemnification Agreement received by June 1st will guarantee a spot in the competition. We will accept a late entry form only if we have extra meats for the cook – please call to check on available meats.

A cook's parent or guardian will be required to sign the attached Release and Indemnification Agreement at check-in or before any child can participate in the Kids Q or Junior Q Competition. We ask that the Agreement be completed and signed and dated and send along with the Kids Q or Junior Q registration paperwork – thank you!

Welcome Kids Q and Junior Q to the 2025 Bring'n Home the Bacon Youth BBQ Competition!

There will be two age divisions in the Youth BBQ:

Kids Q - Ages 5 -10 years old - Turn-in is Friday at 5:45 pm.

- The cooks will prepare, cook, and box their entries at their campsite, and there will be a spotter assigned to the cooks.
- The parents should let the kids do as much as they are capable of, given age and abilities.
- Each cook will receive 4 brats. The cook can make anything with 2-3 brats as long as the brat is seen during the appearance and can be tasted in the final product by the judges. Make sure there is enough portions for 6 judges. We invite the cooks to use their creativity! Also, cooks can eat the 4th brat 😊
- After appearance has been judged, if needed, table captain will cut the product or entry into 6 pieces for each judge to have a portion.
- The cook can present their final product in any way they choose - in the numbered Styrofoam box given to them or on a platter with plates/dishes (similar to a dessert entry). If a platter or tray is used, the number given to them on the Styrofoam box must be cut and taped on the platter/tray when entry is turned in for judges. Please pick up platter and dishes before the awards on Friday.
- Garnishment is optional. There will be no disqualifications for the Kid Q (younger kids)

• Junior Q - Ages 11-16 years old – Turn-in is at 6:00 pm.

- The cooks will be allowed to cook at their campsite. Spotters and/or volunteers may be coming around the campsites to watch.
- The head cook must do the preparation, cooking and presentation by themselves. Parents/Guardians can be nearby watching and can be available for questions from the cook but cannot have any hands-on to any preparation, cooking and presentation unless parent/guardian is needed to cut the product and/or assist with the grill or smoker.
- Each cook will receive 2 Flat Iron Steaks and can make anything as long as the steaks are seen during the appearance and can be tasted in the final product by the judges; make sure there are enough portions for 6 judges. Judges will judge appearance, taste and tenderness.
- After appearance has been judged, if needed, table captain will cut the product or entry into 6 pieces for each judge to receive a portion.
- Garnishment is optional. The cook can present their meat in any way they choose in the box or on a platter with plates/dishes). If a platter or tray is used, the number given to them on the Styrofoam box must be cut and taped on the platter/tray when entry is turned in for judges. Please pick up platter and dishes before the awards on Friday.

Child/Cook must be standing in the "Turn-In" area by the designated times to have their entry accepted.
